Co-Lin moves ahead under Thames' leadership

Dr. Billy B. Thames, as president of the Copiah-Lincoln Community College District, spends much of his time helping students at the campuses at Wesson and at Natchez.

Since he became president in January, 1968, Co-Lin has completed a multi-million dollar building program [illegible] the projects on the Wesson campus was established in 1965. Nearly 1,000 students are enrolled in various programs on both campuses of the college.

Dr. Thames is a native of Tylertown. He was elected to the college board from District 3 in 1967 and was an honor graduate. He received a bachelor of science, a master of science, and a doctorate from the University of Southern Mississippi.

He is active in many professional and business organizations.

He served as President of the Mississippi Junior College Association.

NAMED ALL-STATE, ALL-STAR were Dale Berry, first team, All-State, defensive lineman; Jimmy Mangum, honorable mention, defensive lineman; Joey Pilgrim, south's outstanding offensive lineman, first team, All-State, and All-Star; Tommy Trichell, All-Star; Jimmy Jackson, honorable mention, offensive lineman; Darnell Green, honorable mention, defensive back; Tommy Siler, first team, All-State, offensive back; Jerry Montgomery, All-Star and honorable mention, back; and Leroy Grinstead, honorable mention, back. Not pictured are Roy Binion, All-State, defensive back; Will Turnbo, honorable mention, offensive lineman; and Walter Johnson, honorable mention, defensive lineman.

The Wolves were the only Mississippi junior college team to finish in the National final statistics, according to the National Junior College Athletic Association. Final stats show the Wolves as finishing third in the nation in team passing defense and seventh nationally in total team defense. Marion Institute of Alabama was the only other deep south team to finish in the top ten.

In team passing defense CLJC allowed its opponents an average of only 53 yards per game in a ten-game schedule, and allowed only one score through the air.

Total team defense shows the Wolves number seven, allowing a ten-game average of 189.3 yards per game.

In team passing defense, Coffeyville Kansas Community College was ranked first nationally, with Fergus Falls Minn. second, and Co-Lin and University of Minnesota at Crookston tied for third; however, UM played only eight games.

For total team defense, Golden Valley Lutheran of Minnesota was first. Co-Lin was seventh, with the national champions, Ellsworth Iowa in fifth place.

HISTORIC JEFFERSON CO.

Less than a mile as the crow flies from Co-Lin/Natchez campus is the campus of Jefferson College, an institution of learning chartered in 1803, before Mississippi was officially a state. This campus was the scene on July 4, 1976, of the official celebration of America's independence for the state of Mississippi, because it was here that statehood was declared, here that many leaders of the state were educated, here the site of the famed Aaron Burr trial underneath now towering oaks. The college is currently being restored to its former splendor by the State Department of Archives and History and will be a showplace when it is completed.

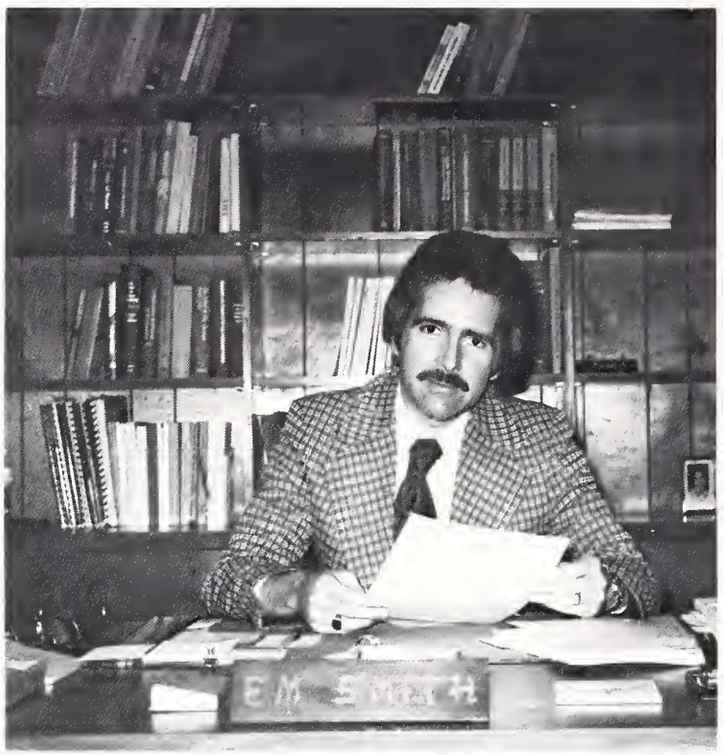
Because of all these reasons, Co-Lin/Natchez, a sister institution to Jefferson College in spirit, salutes Jefferson College, named after the splendid Thomas Jefferson, a true believer in education.

Nearly two centuries separate Jefferson College and Co-Lin/Natchez, but their common function and spirit are the same.

Perhaps Co-Lin/Natchez will live to celebrate the nation's Tri-centennial.

It's true - You Ain't Seen Nothin' Yet!

Administration headed by Dean Smith



Dean Eddie M. Smith devotes much of his time to the progress and improvement of Co-Lin/ Natchez.

Assistant Dean Howell C. Garner finds time for refreshment during his busy schedule.

Top aides are Garner, Porter, Dunn

Director of Admissions and Records Delton Porter sets the master clock for bells to ring in the start of evening classes.

Mrs. Willie Mae Dunn, Head Librarian, manages a daily traffic flow of books, visual aids, periodicals, and students.

Students elect Mr./Miss Co-Lin Natchez

BECKY McMANUS

CHARLES HUTCHINS

Making history themselves at historic Jefferson College are Becky McManus and Charles Hutchins, Mr. and Miss Co-Lin/Natchez for 1976-77.

Elected sophomore class favorites were Gloria Riggs, Eric Lennep, Linda Ellis, Bobbie Fleming, Delores Irving, Theresa Hargrave, and Lorraine Fleming.

Selected to appear in the 1976-77 volume of Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges were those shown below on the grounds of historic Jefferson College, begun in 1803. They include Virginia Paul, Eric Lennep, Gwen Tindell, Rhonda Etheridge, Rebecca Rankin, Judy Frederick, Marvilea Robinson, Amy Loflin, and Theresa Hargrave. Not pictured is Margo Ferguson.

Publications keep staffs busy

CO-LIN/N SIGHTS

Student literary magazine REFRACTIONS appears annually in the spring, featuring original poetry, essays, and art work. Sponsor is Mrs. Carolyn Smith.

Refractions

It all hinges on the classroom

Making sweet music together are Mrs. Charlotte Smith, accompanist of the Co-Lin College-Community Choir; Dick Mullins, instructor of piano and voice; and Wayne Saxon, instructor of music and director of the choir.

Holding down the social studies forces are The Rev. Bernard Walton, left, Charles Quimby, Mrs. Susan Presley, Mrs. Lucianne Wood, and Elliott Trimble.

Teaching force keeps instructional level high

Classroom preparations frequently depend on the Xerox machine, paper cutter, and other mechanical devices. Here getting ready for class are Lyman Smith, left, head of Distribution and Marketing Technology; Mrs. Ann Bullock, instructor of secretarial science; Robert L. Winstead, instructor of mathematics and physics; and Don Marion, instructor of computer principles.

Secretaries, student workers keep things smooth

These friendly voices answer the telephone with "Admissions Office." They belong to Mrs. Kathleen Hutchins, left, and Mrs. Peggy Kissinger.

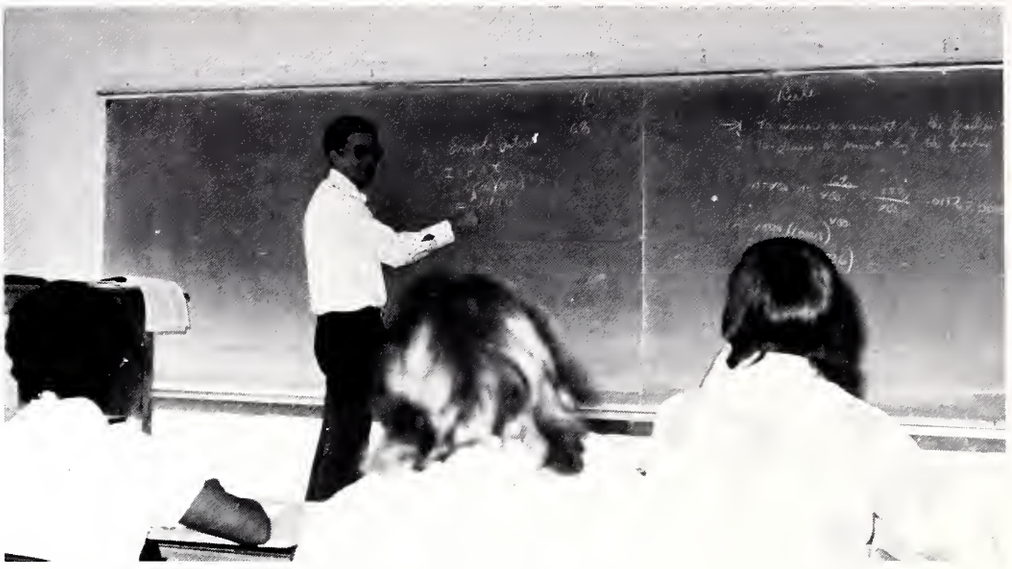
Helping process new library books is just one of many jobs for student workers, Theresa Coleman, Charles Hutchins, and Theresa Hargrave.

Learning involves daily commitment



Mathematics instructor Joey Paul explains simple interest in a math class.

Mannequins in the Distribution and Marketing Technology Department get finishing touches by Eric Lennep and Becky McManus.

Bicentennial beginnings set 1976-77

Main lobby display set the campus in the mood.

Co-Lin/N's College-Community Choir entertained crowds from all over Mississippi at the Fourth of July celebration for the state at historic Jefferson College.

off to a bang-up start

The Dean chose wedding bells in the Bicentennial year when he married Miss Charlotte Flowers, with whom he shares a great interest in music.

The Bicentennial? It's just another school day to us.

Staff members are indispensable

Mrs. Carolyn Motte, secretary to the CETA adult education program on campus, helps Assistant Dean Howell C. Garner show off Co-Lin sweatshirts.

Robert Johnson, below, keeps the Co-Lin/N school vehicles running perfectly, while Norman Brown, right, checks the lock on a classroom door.

in keeping first things first

The bookstore manager, Becky McManus, pulls another history textbook to sell a lucky freshman.

Pam Higginbotham, right, delivers a message to a student in the Hob Nob.

Mrs. Gail Johnson, left, and Mrs. Mildred Combs, Hob-Nob hostesses, sell breakfast, lunch, supper, and snacks to students on-the-go.

Perseverance, diligence earn rewards

These music majors take advantage of an opportunity to use the music corrals in the music department for individual listening pleasure and learning.

Phi Theta Kappa

Phi Theta Kappa, national honorary junior college fraternity, is sponsored on the Co-Lin/N campus by history instructor Charles Quimby. Membership is restricted to those academically superior.

Senior Aides assist public service agencies

Copiah-Lincoln Junior College is sponsoring agent for the SENIOR AIDES program. Five years ago, CLJC became the only college of any type in the nation to have such a program. The program here is one of three in the state and one of 33 in the nation. A federally-funded project, sponsored by the National Council of Senior Citizens through the cooperative efforts of the Department of Labor, the program is open to those 55 years of age or over who are unemployed or underemployed.

The program encompasses ten Southwest Mississippi counties, including Adams, Amite, Copiah, Franklin, Jefferson, Lawrence, Lincoln, Pike, Walthall, and Wilkinson.

Forty Senior Aides are employed by Co-Lin and work on our campus, at Southwest Mississippi Junior College, McComb, Tylertown, Woodville, Natchez, Monticello, Bude, Brookhaven, Enterprise, Bogue Chitto, Magnolia, etc.

Below are students enrolled in adult basic education at Crystal Springs. Adult basic education (ABE) is offered by Co-Lin at Fayette, Meadville, Bogue Chitto, Loyd Star, Monticello, Hazlehurst, Crystal Springs, West Union, and at Vice of Calvary Bible Institute in Mendenhall.

ABE is for persons 16 years of age or older who have not completed high school and not currently enrolled in a school program. Upon completion of three cycles, a student may take the General Educational Development (GED) test, the equivalent of a high school diploma.

Instruction is from grades 0-12 with local teachers provided. There is no cost to attend ABE classes and books and materials are furnished free of charge.

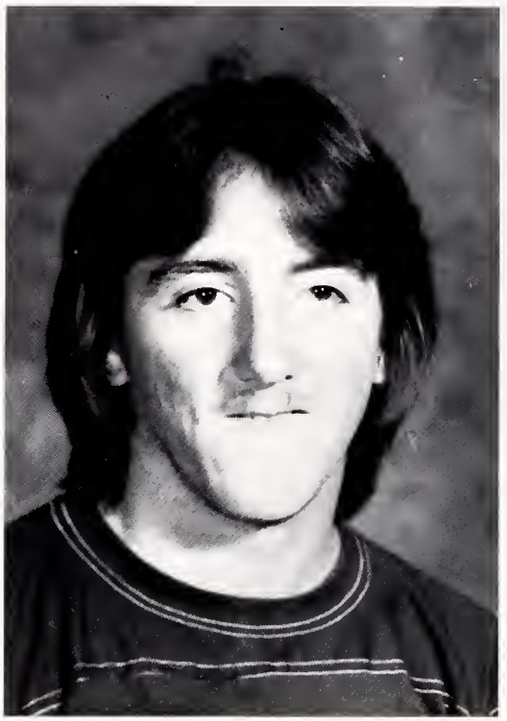
Circle K presents its ninth annual

Barney McKinney became "Mess Co-Lin" 1977 in the ninth annual pageant. On the front are Bobby Fortenberry, third; William Little, second; and standing, Farron Smith, fourth; McKinney, the winner; Gary Phillips, emcee and winner in 1976; and Burlian Walker, first.

"Mess Co-Lin Pageant"

In Memory of George Edwin Scott



Tragedy struck the Co-Lin family when George Edwin Scott died in a wreck on October 28. The freshman, son of former Senator and Mrs. John Scott of Bude, drove the commuting bus from Franklin County. His many friends mourn his death.

Hodges, Strong win alumnus awards

Night faculty teaches variety of courses

Night faculty members for academic courses include (seated) Mrs. Mary Lou Landress, English; Wade Alexander, history; Ronnie McNair, hygiene; Billy R. Folkes, director of the night program. Standing are John Landress, speech; Lewis Weeks, accounting; Burlian Walker, English; Tom Pace, psychology; Harold Patterson, history; Mike McIntyre, economics; and Harold Clopton III, banking courses.

Full academic program available at night

A wide variety of academic courses is available at night for those wishing to enroll in such a program. Many are full-time students, taking up to 12 hours. Classes are available in all areas, when ten or more wish the class to be taught. This year classes were in English Composition and Literature, math, government, history, speech, accounting, business law, biology, hygiene, geography, economics, to name a few. Off campus classes for credit were taught at Mendenhall High School, at King's Daughters Hospital in Brookhaven, and a Parenting Clinic at St. Francis School in Brookhaven.

Hundreds enroll in vo-tech non-credit courses

Vocational-Technical night classes for non-credit are available to adults in the district. Several hundred enroll during the school year. Among classes available are general art, upholstery, machine shop, blueprint reading and math for metal workers, auto mechanics, radio and tv repair, electronics, programming, dressmaking, cake decorating, record keeping, keypunch, typing, shorthand, income tax preparation, carpentry, air conditioning and heating, welding, nurses aid, to name a few. Cost of each course is small. CLJC's vocational-technical division helped provide space for training facilities for Packard Electric Company in its Watson Building. Many other workshops and short courses were sponsored during the year by the vocational-technical division.

Editor's Message . . .

Writing copy is possibly the hardest part of putting together a yearbook. We, the editors of the 1976-1977 TRILLIUM found this book no exception. A yearbook is supposed to catch the spirit of the school, and we feel that we have done this.

Co-Lin has been a tremendous experience for us, not only academically, but through the different people we have met and the friends we have made. These friends and the times shared with them form the basis for many memories, both painful and joyful.

A yearbook is more than just a book of pictures to be put on a shelf and collect dust. However old and ragged it may appear, the memories contained in its pages make the book grow more precious with age.

We, the editors of the 1977 TRILLIUM, therefore, dedicate this book of memories to all those that are on its pages.
